

Unique Opportunity for Orthopedic Surgeon

Inland Orthopaedic Surgery and Sports Medicine Clinic is seeking an energetic, forward-thinking, Board Certified or board eligible Orthopedic Surgeon to join current practice of four established surgeons. Preference will be given to applicants with fellowship training in Hand, Foot/Ankle, Arthroplasty or Spine Surgery. If you are interested in this position or would like more information please contact:

Edwin Tingstad, M.D. at ETingstadM.D@inlandortho.net or Kyle Hazelwood, M.D. at khazelwood@inlandortho.net

This professional opportunity offers the following terms:

- Two year income guarantee with income potential from ancillary services
- Generous sign-on bonus with relocation stipend
- Involvement in research opportunities and regional sports medicine clinics
- Care of Pac12 and Big Sky university student-athletes and regional high school student-athletes
- Academic appointment through Washington State University and the University of Washington School of Medicine
- Join a growing medical team of more than 70 local physicians
- Health, disability, retirement plan, life insurance